Dear Mr. Smith,

5/16/74

Except for the one, you have all the books I have been able to print. I have completed all the parts of Post Mortem but can't afford to print them.

I would like this to change, of course. We keep a mailing list and will add your name to it. If I can print, you'll know.

There are almost no copies of Oswald in New Orleans of which I know. I have a few and have to ask $21.00 for each. This represents the cost of reproduction electrostatically for me, here.

This includes mailing and insurance.

Sincerely,
